

EIGHTH AMENDMENT TO OHIO ATTORNEY GENERAL AGREEMENT #12939

WHEREAS, the Ohio Attorney General (“Attorney General”) and Fair Isaac Corporation (“FICO”) entered into an agreement between the Attorney General and FICO (AGO Agreement #12939), a First Amendment to the agreement effective September 30, 2020, a Second Amendment to the agreement effective March 3, 2021 and a Third Amendment to the agreement effective on July 1, 2021, (collectively, the “FICO Agreement”);

WHEREAS, the Attorney General and Jonas Collections and Recovery Inc. (“Jonas C&R Software”) entered into a Fourth Amendment effective on July 1, 2021 whereby Jonas C&R Software assumed FICO’s responsibilities under the Agreement; a Fifth Amendment to the Agreement effective on June 1, 2022, a Sixth Amendment to the Agreement effective on December 13, 2022 and a Seventh Amendment to the Agreement effective on July 1, 2023 (with the FICO Agreement, collectively the “Agreement”);

WHEREAS, the Attorney General and Jonas C&R Software desire to amend the terms of the Agreement;

WHEREAS, the Agreement sets forth fees for training services totaling $419,641.00 in Attachment 2 to Exhibit 1(b) to the Third Amendment to the Agreement (“Training Fees”);

WHEREAS, the Training Fees were approved by the Controlling Board for funding;

WHEREAS, the Attorney General did not spend all of the allocated Training Fees for the period from July 1, 2021 through June 30, 2022 (“First Renewal Period”);

WHEREAS, the Attorney General anticipates $156,089.00 of the Training Fees will remain unspent by the Attorney General (“Remaining Training Fees”) at the end of the First Renewal Period;

WHEREAS, the Attorney General and Jonas C&R Software have renewed the Agreement for an additional period starting on July 1, 2023 and ending no later than June 30, 2025 (“Second Renewal Period”);

WHEREAS, the Attorney General desires to make the Remaining Training Fees available for use during the Second Renewal Period

NOW THEREFORE, the Attorney General and Jonas C&R Software agree to enter into this Eighth Amendment to and the Agreement as follows:

1. Amend Article IV, Compensation, to include the following new sentence at the end of Section IV.A.: “Attorney General shall pay Consultant more than $156,089.00 during the Second Renewal Period for training services set forth in Attachment 2 to Exhibit 1(b) to this Agreement.”
2. All other terms and conditions of the Agreement remain the same.
3. This Eighth Amendment to the Agreement is effective as of July 1, 2023.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this First Amendment to and Renewal of the Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives.
